

UF/IFAS Small Farms Academy
Cold Tolerant
Citrus Production
for the Southeastern Coastal Plain

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 13, 2017

Join us and visit our citrus orchard, get updates about citrus production in North Florida / South Georgia and learn and get advice about growing Cold Hardy Citrus in the area.

WHERE

Suwannee Valley Ag Extension Center
8202 County Road 417, Live Oak, FL 32060

REGISTRATION COST

$25.00 - lunch is included.

REGISTER ONLINE

<http://citrusFD.eventbrite.com>

(call Dilcia Toro at 386-362-1725 ext.102 for other registration options)

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROGRAM CONTACT

Clay Olson at cbolson@ufl.edu or (850)838-3508
Dan Fenneman at dfenneman@ufl.edu or (850)973-4138.

- 9:00 a.m. Registration and visit vendors
- 9:20 a.m. Welcome Bob Hochmuth, Center Director
- 9:30 a.m. Dr. Tom Obreza, UF/IFAS "Citrus Fertilization for Cold Tolerant Varieties."
- 10:00 a.m. Dr. Pete Andersen, UF/IFAS "Citrus Production in Quincy Florida - New Varieties."
- 10:30 a.m. Dan Fenneman, UF/IFAS Extension Madison County Food Safety Updates
- 10:45 a.m. Jake Price, UGA, Lowndes County, Ga. Spray Program Considerations
- 11:00 a.m. Break - Refreshments and visit Vendors
- 11:15 a.m. Two Rotations
Phillip Rucks, Rucks Nursery Proper tree planting, emitter positioning, tree wraps
Matt Lollar, UF/IFAS Extension Jackson County Sprayers, calibration, drenches, PPE
- 12:15 p.m. Lunch - Association information, visit vendors
- 1:15 p.m. Grove Walking Tour - Lani Davis