Small Farm Pasture Management Series (April 3, 5, 10, 17)

The Location: 5339 County Rd. 579 Seffner, FL
For register: https://goo.gl/kGWfz2

This program is to provide the knowledge to understand the necessary procedures for establishing high-quality forage. This series includes the practical demonstration that will help any livestock producer to implement the most cost-efficient forage system. The program consists of topics such as soil test, pastures disease, multi-species grazing, forages rotation strategies, toxic Weed management, pasture establishment, and cool/warm season forage. This program integrates field specialists on various topics. Take advantage of this unique opportunity to improve your pastures.

April 3, 2018
- Soils test interpretation
- Plant Physiology
- Forage diseases

April 5, 2018
- Multi-Species Grazing
- Rotation Strategies

April 10, 2018
- Toxic Weeds
- Weed Management
- Toxic Weed Demonstration

April 17, 2018
- Pasture Establishment and cover crops
- Warm/Cool-Season Forages
- Forage

All workshops are held from 6pm till 8:30pm